Managing Successful Programmes (MSP®) is the world's leading qualification for programme management. With change a pressing reality for all organisations, successful programme management has never been more vital to success.

Why MSP Certification?

MSP (Managing Successful Programmes), 5th edition is an established best-practice programme management framework, designed to align programmes and projects to organizational strategy and enable agility.

There are three main components - the principles, the themes, and the processes. The principles represent the characteristics of a successful programme. The governance themes allow organizations to put the right leadership, organizational structures, and controls in place. The processes provide a route through the lifecycle of a programme to deliver the new capability and desired outcomes.

When used together successfully, they provide a clear roadmap for the programme lifecycle, including larger, more strategic, complex, or multiple projects.

KEY TEXT: Managing Successful Programmes

The Managing Successful Programmes 5th Edition Handbook will help improve programme-level decision-making for all professionals with programme management responsibility, within public and private sector companies of all sizes. It provides a practical, step-by-step approach for designing and running successful programmes. As well as advising on how to embed, review and apply MSP to achieve high-quality outcomes, it gives real-world examples of how to best apply how to apply best-practice programme management.

Some of the Benefits of MSP Certification

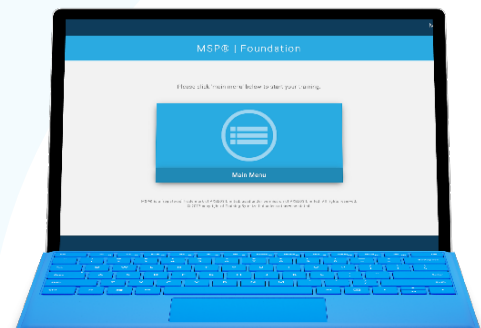

Individual:

- ✓ Certification demonstrates that you have built up your knowledge and skills in best-practice standards of programme management, and showcases your commitment to personal and professional development.
- ✓ Gain an internationally-recognized qualification, meaning that your certification will travel well with you, wherever you go.
- ✓ Improve your career and salary prospects.

Organizational:

- ✓ MSP provides step-by-step guidance for managing complexity and resources.
- ✓ As a standardized approach, it ensures that projects and programmes are aligned to organizational strategy.
- ✓ Improve benefits realization through the improved delivery of strategic programmes and multiple projects.

Building on knowledge gained in the Foundation level, MSP Practitioner is designed for project, programme, and business change managers who want to apply the MSP framework to real-life scenarios, giving them the tools to think analytically as a programme manager.

Learning Outcomes

In addition to demonstrating the competencies required at Foundation Level, candidates are required to show that they are able to tailor and apply MSP principles, practices, and processes to address the needs and problems of real-life programme management scenarios.

A successful Practitioner candidate should be able to:

- ✓ Understand how to apply the MSP principles in context
- ✓ Understand how to apply and tailor relevant aspects of the MSP themes in context
- ✓ Understand how to apply and tailor relevant aspects of the MSP processes in context

Who is the MSP Practitioner Certification for?

The MSP Practitioner Certification is suited for project managers, business change managers (BCMs), experts and advisers working within a programme office as well as other specialist/governance roles involved in supporting programmes following the MSP guidance.

This level is also suitable for senior responsible owners (SROs) and those wishing to pursue higher level certifications (e.g. programme managers) and those aspiring to become programme management professionals in the future.
